SIR EDMUND HILLARY COLLEGIATE STRATEGIC PLAN 2020 - 2025

Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate educates its students to achieve their and their family's dreams; to be academically, socially and personally successful; to care for themselves and others; to be agentive and resilient-to overcome adversities to reach their true potential.

Our students #MaungaUp!

Maunga Up Our Mission

The Hillary Difference

You can do all your learning—from playgroup to year 13—at Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate.

Students that learn at Hillary Collegiate join a seamless pathway of learning and achievement in a culture where students and whanau can thrive as themselves. Hillary is a place of achievement and belonging, of aroha and manaakitanga. This journey begins at Hillary, and continues towards the lofty heights.

Hillary Collegiate, like the person it is named after, is a monument to how great things can be achieved with humility, preparation, care for others, and hard work.

- The Collegiate will maximise seamless student and curricular pathways for learner success.
- The Collegiate will implement and grow transformative digital learning among students and teachers.
- We will develop and implement seamless Maker-led learning environment across the Collegiate.

Te Ara. A Seamless Culture of Learning and Wellbeing

Some day I'm going to climb Everest.

A young Sir Edmund Hillary

- We will nuture and support the future vision of our students, staff, whanau and community.
- We will prepare our students for further education and personal, social, cultural and economic success.
- We will seek effective solutions to our challenges #ClimbMountains

Langi. Innovative and Future-Facing

"Ehara taku toa I te toa takitihi, engari taku toa he toa takitini".

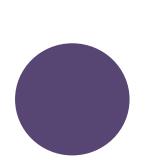

My achievement is not that of an individual, but is that of many.

Whakatauki

- We will create opportunities and spaces to include families in learning and school life.
- We will work to support our families to have the resources they need to be well and successful.

• We will collaborate with external partners to support student and whanau wellbeing and success.

Teu le Va. Connected families, Engaged Communities

E afua mai mauga le manuia 'o se nu'u

A village's blessings and wellbeing flow from the top of the mountain

- We will provide and maintain spaces and facilities that advance learning and support student, staff and community wellbeing.
- We will be ambitious to secure new and inspiring facilities to expand educational opportunities.
- We will teach and practice kaitiakitanga; reducing our carbon and environmental footprint whereever possible.

Kainga. Empowering Environment, Sustainable Use of Resources

He pukepuke maunga, e pikitia e te tangata; he pukepuke moana, e ekeina e te waka; he pukepuke tangata, e kore e pikitia e te tangata.

The mountain's summit can be climbed by man; the waves of the ocean can be topped by a canoe; but the human mount cannot be scaled by people.

(If he had sought shelter on the mountain, or at sea, we could have followed him; but being sheltered by a great, chief we cannot follow him there.)

- We will nurture leadership from the junior school to the principals and Board.
- We will deliver quality services and systems that support a thriving and robust educational kainga.
- We will develop and sustain a high performance culture amongst teachers, and student and senior leaders.

Rangatiratanga. Inspiring leadership and operational excellence

It is not the mountain we conquer, but ourselves.
